Module type Degree Electives without specialty designation Course title MAT. Spanish for foreigners	ECTS Credits 6 Electives common to all tracks
Language(s) of instruction Basque, Spanish, English	Format In-person

Skills that the student will acquire with this subject

-Basic skills:

CB5 – Develop the learning skills necessary to undertake further studies with a high degree of autonomy.

-General skills:

CG7. Recognize and promote the benefits of coexistence among different languages, realities and cultures for personal and professional development.

- Specific skills:

CE5. Communicate correctly, appropriately and effectively in various communicative situations in Basque, Spanish and English.

CE10. Acquire a broad linguistic awareness and a proactive attitude in all communicative registers used in the daily activities of the educational community in Basque, Spanish and English.

Learning outcomes the student will acquire with this subject

- Use everyday expressions and basic sentences to meet daily needs.

- Participate in a conversation exchanging basic, personal, family, and local information.

- Understand the main idea of simple texts about familiar topics.

- Demonstrate skill in the use of technological resources to learn and improve communicative competence in Spanish.

Teaching-learning methodology and its relationship to the skills the student must acquire

- ✓ ME4. Cooperative learning
- ✓ ME5. Challenge-based learning

Training activities

In-person format

In-person activities (30%):

- ✓ AP15. Seminars - 35 hours

- ✓ AP18. Tutoring - 10 hours

Non-in-person activities (70%):

- ✓ ANP1. Autonomous study and work - 60 hours

- ✓ ANP2. Group study and work - 45 hours

Skills acquisition assessment

- ✓ In-person format
  - ✓ PEV01 Quality of individual work 40%
  - ✓ PEV02 Quality of group work 30%
  - ✓ PEV04 Attendance and active participation in training activities 30%

Summary of course content
- ✓ Regulations and use of Spanish.

- ✓ Compensatory strategies to scaffold the teaching-learning process of a language.

- ✓ Strategies developed through the languages that are known and used.

- ✓ Online tools for studying Spanish: dictionaries, text correctors, etc.